

BTEC First for IT Practitioners

Website Development

Student Name: _____

Grading Criteria
To achieve a pass your work must show:		To achieve a merit your work must show:		To achieve a distinction your work must show:
P1. describe, using examples, four different purposes of websites noting the construction features used by each one	<input type="checkbox"/>	M1. explain how designers use different construction features to help the user access information on websites	<input type="checkbox"/>	D1. justify the use of different construction features in the design of a website	<input type="checkbox"/>
P2. review, using examples, four different websites, noting whether they have achieved their specific purpose	<input type="checkbox"/>	M2. identify and explain suggestions that could be implemented in order to improve at least two websites	<input type="checkbox"/>	D2. evaluate the benefits and disadvantages of learning and using HTML in website creation, as opposed to only using wizards to generate web pages	<input type="checkbox"/>
P3. design, create and check a multi-page website to meet the requirements of a defined client	<input type="checkbox"/>	M3. describe the use of interactive websites and what techniques can be used to provide interactivity.	<input type="checkbox"/>
P4. upload and maintain a multi-page website	<input type="checkbox"/>
P5. describe three different situations in which a web designer could be in breach of the law	<input type="checkbox"/>

Overall Grade: _____

Note: students have the opportunity to produce evidence for each grading criteria by completing the assignments.